Rome, Sept. 12. N. S.

A Conſiſtory was held laſt Monday, in which 'twas thought there would have been a Promotion of Cardinals; and this was ſo much depended upon, that Signior Erizzo, the Venetian Ambaſſador, had taken an opportunity ſome days before to recommend Signior Delfino, who reſides as Nuncio at the Court of France, to the Pope, in order to his being made a Cardinal; But the Pope has ſince declared, that he has no intention of making a Promotion yet a-while, and it's ſaid, the ſame will be deferred till the beginning of the Jubilee. It's diſcourſed, that the Duke of Savoy is not well ſatisfied with the Bull, empowering him to nominate to the vacant Biſhopricks and Abbeys in Piedmont, becauſe there are ſeveral Clauſes in the ſaid Grant, which render it much leſs Beneficial than was expected by his Royal Highneſs. The number of Pilgrims that come hither on account of the approaching Jubilee is ſo very great, that it becomes burdenſome to this City, and Orders are given for ſending part of them into the neighbouring Villages. The Differences between the Emperor and this Court continue in the ſame Poſture, and the Pope does ſtill refuſe to admit the Imperial Ambaſſador to Audience; ſo that it's believed his Excellency will return in a ſhort time to Vienna. The new Works for the Improvement of the Port of Anzo are finiſhed, having coſt the Pope above 120000 Crowns, and Orders are given for making an Aqueduct, to convey freſh Water thither for the Conveniency of the Ships that come in there.

Venice, Septemb. 18. Signior Soranzo, Ambaſſador from this Republick to the Grand Signior, continues in the Port of Lido with the Men of War that are to Convoy him in his Voyage to Conſtantinople, being detained by contrary Winds; He is to touch at Napoli di Romania to confer with General Cornaro, and to deliver to him a conſiderable Sum of Money, which is ſent by Order of the Senate to pay the Arrears due to the Venetian Fleet, and to their Land Forces in the Morea. Our laſt Letters from Dalmatia give an Account, that General Mocenigo having viſited divers fortified Places, and reviewed the Venetian Forces in that Province, was returned to Spalatro; And that the Conferences between Signior Grimani and the Venetian and Turkiſh Commiſſioners for ſettling the Limits, were diſcontinued by reaſon of ſome Difficulties, touching which they expected further Orders from their reſpective Maſters; and in the mean time Signior Grimani was come to Singh.

Warſaw, Sept. 19. The Conferences between the Cardinal Primate, and the other Miniſters appointed by the King of Poland to treat with Baron Werner, Reſident from the Elector of Brandenburgh, concerning the Buſineſs of Elbing, are continued, and at their laſt Meeting 'twas agreed, That this Crown ſhall pay to the Elector the Sum of 300000 Dollars in lieu of all his Pretenſions, on the Receipt of which, or of a ſufficient Security, his Electoral Highneſs is immediately to reſtore the City of Elbing to the Polanders. This Agreement being concluded, the Cardinal Primate diſpatched an Expreſs to the King of Poland to acquaint him with it, and the Chief Miniſters of this Court have ſince met together to conſider of the Means to raiſe this Sum, which it's ſaid ſome Perſons of Quality have offered to advance to the King at a moderate Intereſt. The Princes Alexander and Conſtantine continue in this City; It's ſaid, the King has offered them a conſiderable Sum of Money for the Town of Villa-Nova, which they have inherited from the late King their Father. The King's Saxon Regiment of Guards, to whom the Guard of the Caſtle of this City was committed, are marched from hence to Pruſſia, and were relieved by a Regiment of Polanders. We have received Letters from the Commiſſioners appointed by the King to take poſſeſſion of Caminiec, which give an Account, that the Baſſa of Caminiec having made all Things ready for evacuating that City, he deſired Hoſtages might be given for the due Performance of what was agreed on; for which purpoſe, the Polanders nominated Lieutenant-General Roche and Major Ruman, and the Turks two of their Principal Officers, who being accordingly exchanged, the Turks delivered to the Polanders one of the City Gates, and the Baſſa promiſed to march out with the whole Garriſon as ſoon as their Effects could be carried away. He deſired ſome Troops of Polanders might be appointed to convoy him and his Garriſon as far as Raskon, which was granted, and the Commiſſioners of Poland acquainted the Baſſa, that they had Directions to make him a Preſent of 30000 Ducats as ſoon as he has actually evacuated the Place; And that Orders are given for delivering to the Turks the Places on the Frontiers of Moldavia, which are to be reſtored to them by this Crown purſuant to the Treaty of Peace. The Cardinal Primate has left this Place, intending to paſs ſome days at Radzieowitz. General Fleming, and the Counts of Levenow and Denhoff, are gone from hence to attend the King of Poland at Teplitz.

Copenhagen, Sept. 29. An Expreſs arrived here the 27th Inſtant from the Dutchy of Holſtein, with an Account of the Number of the Forces of Sweden and Holſtein that are in that Dutchy, and of the new Forts that are building by the Duke of Holſtein's Orders. The Council has thereupon been ſeveral times aſſembled, but 'tis not ſaid what is the Reſult of their Debates. The King continues his Reſolution of going to Holſtein in the beginning of next month. The Duke of Wirtemberg has taken a Review of the Forces quartered in the Neighbourhood of this City, and is gone to do the like in the Provinces of Funen, Zeelant, and Jutland. The new Levies in this Country are continued, out of which two Regiments of Horſe and two of Foot will be formed, and 10 Men are to be added to each Company of the old Regiments of Foot. The King has made ſeveral new Regulations relating to his Houſhold, and the Adminiſtration of his Revenues. He has ordered, That whereas during the late King's Reign, the Generals and other Great Officers, and the Foreign Miniſters, did frequently eat at the King's own Table, none ſhall be admitted there for the future but Princes of the Blood, and that the Foreign Miniſters ſhall be entertained by the Marſhal of the Court. An Order is publiſhed, Requiring all thoſe who hold any Eſtates from the Crown, to come and renew their Leaſes before the Firſt of January next, on pain of forfeiting them. It's ſaid, the Sieur Jeſſen will be ſent to France, to ſucceed the Sieur Meyercroon Envoy Extraordinary from this Crown, who is recalled from that Employment. The French Ambaſſador here intends towards the middle of the next month, to make Sale of the Ships and Goods, which were taken from the Dantzickers about two years ago by the Chevalier de Bart.

Vienna, Sept. 23. The Imperial Court is expected here the 25th Inſtant, and will return to Eberſdorf the 27th. On the 26th the Count d'Otting, Ambaſſador to the Grand Signior, is to have his Audience of Leave of the Emperor, and he deſigns on this occaſion to go to the Palace with the ſame Train and Equipage, which is all made after the Turkiſh Fashion, and very rich, as he intends to have at his Entry at Conſtantinople; His Excellency will be going from hence in few days
